

*Sport for Development and Peace
International Working Group (SDP IWG)*

Sport and Child & Youth Development

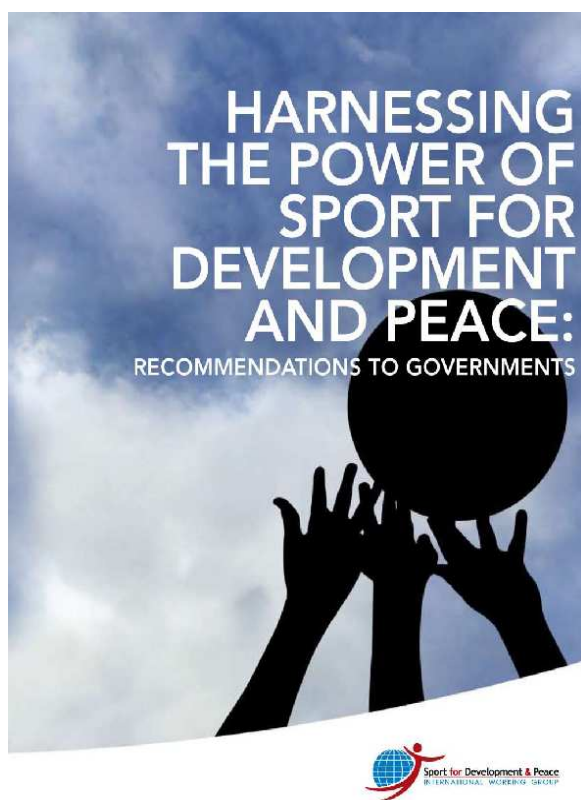

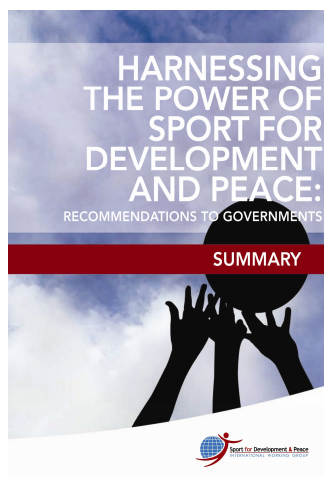

European Regional Meeting
Brussels, Belgium
8 December 2010

What is SDP IWG

- Inter-governmental policy initiative
- Aim: promote the integration of Sport for Development and Peace (SDP) policy recommendations into national and international development strategies of national governments.
- Members: Member State representative
- Observers: UN system representatives, academia, civil society, private sector, sports organisations, non-governmental organisations.

Publications

www.un.org/sport

Contribution to Reports

- Angola
- Argentina
- Australia
- Austria
- Azerbaijan
- Benin
- Brazil
- Burundi
- Canada
- Cape Verde
- Ethiopia
- Germany
- Ghana
- Lebanon
- Mexico
- Mozambique
- The Netherlands
- Norway
- Palau
- Palestinian Territory
- Papua New Guinea
- Peru
- Samoa
- Sierra Leone
- South Africa
- Spain
- Sri Lanka
- Switzerland
- Tanzania
- Thailand
- Uganda
- United Kingdom
- Vanuatu
- Zambia

Important Dates

- 2004: Athens Summer Olympic Games
- 2007: Accra, Ghana
- August 2008: Beijing, China
- December 2008: UN General Assembly Resolution A/RES/63/135
- April 2009: call for funding
- December 2009: Sport and Child & Youth Development Thematic launched.

Five Thematics

- Sport and Health
- Sport and Child & Youth Development
- Sport and Gender
- Sport and Persons with Disabilities
- Sport and Peace

Funders

- UNOSDP extra-budgetary office
- Thank you to:
 - United Kingdom
 - Canada
 - Norway
- Encourage Governments for financial support

Next Steps

- Launch other thematics
 - Develop regular regional meetings
 - Focus on best practices
 - Formalized reporting
-
- SDP IWG 2nd Plenary Session provisional date:
12 May 2011, Geneva, Switzerland

For more information

- For more information on SDP IWG, or to download key publications visit us online at :

www.un.org/sport

- For any other inquiries, contact us directly at:

sdpiwg@unog.ch

Or

UNOSDP

Villa La Pelouse

Palais des Nations

CH-1211 Geneva